The protagonist of this complex fantasy is young lyra belacqua, a precocious orphan growing up within the precincts of oxford university. The golden compass is a 2007 fantasy adventure film based on northern lights, the first novel in philip pullman's trilogy his dark materials. written and directed by chris weitz, it stars nicole kidman, dakota blue richards, daniel craig, sam elliott, eva green, and ian mckellen. The project was announced in february 2002, but difficulties over the script and the selection of a director caused Auto suggestions are available once you type at least 3 letters. use up arrow (for mozilla firefox browser alt+up arrow) and down arrow (for mozilla firefox browser alt+down arrow) to review and enter to select. Directed by chris weitz. with nicole kidman, daniel craig, dakota blue richards, ben walker. in a parallel universe, young lyra belacqua journeys to the far north to save her best friend and other kidnapped children from terrible experiments by a mysterious organization. Critics consensus: without the bite or the controversy of the source material, the golden compass is reduced to impressive visuals overcompensating for lax storytelling. Northern lights (known as the golden compass in north america and some other countries) is a young-adult fantasy novel by philip pullman, published by scholastic uk in 1995. In a parallel universe, it features the journey of lyra belacqua to the arctic in search of her missing friend, roger parslow, and her imprisoned uncle, lord asriel, who has been conducting experiments with a mysterious
