Chapter 1 : Story Bowdoin College Hatch Louis Loring

The history of bowdoin college (1927), by louis clinton hatch, is the most detailed history of the college for the period from the college's founding in 1794 until 1927. it is especially useful in documenting college traditions and curricular developments, and tangentially in recording social life in brunswick. In offering this history of bowdoin college to the alumni and to the public the author wishes to make a full acknowledgment of its imperfections and to beg the favorable consideration of its readers.
